SC sets up SIT, orders regn of FIR in 'custodial death'

New Delhi: The Supreme Court on Thursday ordered the setting up of an SIT and alleged custodial assault and death of Jahnuvidhin Gyasuddin Shaikh, and to file a final probe report preferably within three months before a Gujarat court.

The petition, filed by Totik Shaikh, the deceased's son, challenged a Gujarat High Court order dated May 29, which dismissed his plea seeking registration of an FIR and an independent investigation into the death of his father while in police custody. The high court held that the petitioner should first avail the statutory remedy under Section 133(3) of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita (BNSS) before approaching a constitutional court.

The bench did not agree to the submission of Additional Solicitor General S V Raju that instead of an FIR, let there be a preliminary enquiry on
