Tata Sons narrows...

NARENDRAN: THE TATA INSIDER: Narendran has emerged as the name most consistently mentioned in early discussions and remains the strongest internal operating candidate. A Tata Steel veteran since 1988, Narendran has spent more than three decades with the group and has led the steelmaker as CEO and MD for more than a decade.

He has steered Tata Steel through volatile global commodity cycles, heavy capital expenditure and the difficult European operations that have been a challenge for successive Tata Sons chairmen.

Narendran has overseen the company's organic and inorganic expansion and has held several prominent industry and institutional positions, including chairman of the World Steel Association and president of the Confederation of Indian Industry. He is reported to be one of the two operating CEOs -- the other being Tata Power's Praveer Sinha -- whom Noel Tata regularly consults.

For Narendran, the challenge would be to translate his experience of running a large Tata operating company into managing a sprawling portfolio ranging from IT and automobiles to aviation, consumer businesses and new-age manufacturing.

AGRAWAL: THE FINANCE OPTION: Agrawal represents a distinctly finance- and strategy-oriented internal option.

He joined Tata Sons in 2017 as Group CFO under Chandrasekaran and currently serves as Executive Director and Group CFO. His responsibilities extend beyond those of a conventional CFO, including capital allocation, investment-management decisions and portfolio optimisation across the group.

An IIT Roorkee graduate with a postgraduate management degree from IIM Calcutta, Agrawal began his career in finance and investment banking in 1995.

He went on to head investment banking at DSP Merrill Lynch, served as head of corporate finance for India and South Asia at Standard Chartered and held a senior strategy role at the Aditya Birla Group before joining Tata Sons.

Agrawal had also advised major Indian groups, including the Tatas, on transactions before joining the conglomerate, giving him a combination of external financial-market experience and intimate knowledge of the Tata Group's investment architecture.

He has held board positions across the group, including Tata Steel, Voltas and Tata Digital, and chairs businesses including Tata Capital, Tata Play, Tata AIA Life Insurance, Tata AIG General Insurance, Tata Power Renewable Energy, Tata 1mg and BigBasket.

Terrorist killed in J&K...

Although the operation is faced with difficulties because of incessant rain and visibility reducing to as low as five metres, the area is dominated by the army and its Special Forces to thwart any successful escape attempt.

Yasir was gunned down by the Army on Friday.

According to the officials, Yasir's presence was first detected in 2024. Inputs suggest his involvement in at least three major terror incidents in 2024, an ambush of an Indian Air Force (IAF) convoy in Poonch district, an attack on construction workers near Sonamarg, and an attack on the Army in Bota Pathri.

An IAF member was killed and four others injured when terrorists ambushed a convoy of the force in Jammu and Kashmir's Poonch district. The attack took place near Shahsitar in the Surankote area around 6.15 pm on May 4, 2024, when the troops were returning to their base at Sanai Top.

Seven people, one of them a local doctor, were gunned down by a terrorist group on October 20, 2024, at Gangangir in Sonamarg.

Yasir was part of the terror group led by Junai Ahmed Bhat, a Lashkar-e-Taiba commander, who was shot dead by security forces on December 3, 2024, in Dachigam forest on the outskirts of Srinagar.

On October 24, 2024, Yasir and other terrorists ambushed an Indian Army vehicle in the Bota Pathri area near Gulmarg, Jammu and Kashmir, killing five people -- three soldiers and two porters.

The officials said Yasir had crossed to the north of the Pir Panjal range to meet Junaid, and since the Boat Pathri encounter, he and Musa, another Lashkar-e-Taiba terrorist, had been hiding in the Yusmarg and Pulwama belts. They returned south of the Pir Panjal range in the Jammu region last year, only to re-enter the Valley earlier this month.

The current operation was launched after the army tracked the movement of the terror group advancing from Ashdar Gali in Poonch towards Pakherpora in Pulwama via Yusmarg. Following the input, Special forces and Indian Army units laid an ambuscade along the mountain passes at altitudes ranging between 12,000 and 15,500 feet.

A tight cordon was established in the area on September 1, and initial contact was made on September 3 at Ashdar Gali, a remote alpine ridge.

According to the officials, the encounter site is nearly five hours from the Doodhpathri area of Budgam and is extremely isolated.

"Based on specific intelligence input, a joint search operation was launched by the Indian Army, J&K Police and CRPF in Budgam. Vigilant troops observed suspicious activity, and upon being challenged, terrorists opened fire, prompting a fierce exchange of gunfire during which one terrorist was neutralised and one AK rifle was recovered," the Srinagar-based Chinar Corps said on X on Friday.

Reinforcements have been deployed across the higher reaches as combing operations continue to track down Musa. More troops have been ranged along the Jammu side of the Pir Panjal to block all possible escape routes.

educational development initiatives. "Her groundbreaking community initiative, Nyota Bhojan (now expanded statewide), along with home reading campaigns (Ghar-Ghar PustakVachan), has driven 100 per cent FLN literacy in her school, earning it the 'Sugghar Padhaiya' Platinum Grade status," the award citation read. Nyota Bhojan is a community-sponsored meal initiative, credited for improving student nutrition in Yadav's school.

Kunda Jayawant Bachhav from Nashik in Maharashtra has received the award for bringing innovative and equal learning opportunities to every student.

"Through her transformative 'Educational Parenting' initiative, she has provided financial and academic support to over 150 underprivileged girls, preventing early marriages and opening pathways to higher education. Her efforts in mobilising over Rs 55 lakh in community and CSR support and mentoring students to achieve national awards highlight her exceptional commitment to holistic development, community trust and inclusive nation-building," the citation read.

Ravi Jaiswal of the Government Model High School, Chandigarh, has received the honour for his innovative pedagogy, highlighted by his creation of low-cost, scalable solutions like the CV Raman Dome Theatre, a Mobile Science Lab on a cart and an interactive outdoor Science and Knowledge Park built using recycled materials.

The dedicated outreach to bring dropout and out-of-school children from 60 villages back into the classroom has earned Renu Tripathi from Government Balika Inter College, Ghaziabad, the national award.

CJI Kant highlights need for culture of healthy disagreement, deliberation

NEW DELHI, Sept 5 (PTI)

CHIEF Justice of India (CJI) Surya Kant emphasised the importance of a culture of healthy disagreement and deliberations at the BRICS Chief Justices' Forum here on Saturday.

BRICS Chief Justices' Forum

Addressing the gathering of Heads of Delegations and Delegates from the BRICS Member States and Partner Countries on the second day of the BRICS Chief Justices' Forum, the CJI highlighted that timely and predictable delivery of justice is necessary.

The gathering was also addressed by judicial leaders from Brazil, Russia, China, South Africa and other Member and Partner Countries of the grouping. Luiz Edson Fachin, President, Supreme Federal Court of Brazil, addressed the gathering virtually.

Other judicial leaders like Igor Krasnov, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the Russian Federation; Zhang Jun, Chief Justice of China and President of the Supreme People's Court; Boulos Gahmy Iskander Boulos, Chief Justice of Egypt's Supreme Constitutional Court; and Sunarto, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Indonesia, also addressed the gathering. Some other leaders who addressed the audience included Mohammed Hamad Al Badi Al Dhaheri, President of the UAE Federal Supreme Court; Andrei Shved, Chairman of the SC of Belarus; Aslambek Mergaliyev, Chairman of the Supreme Court of Kazakhstan; Mahube Betty Molemela, President of the Supreme Court of Appeal of South Africa; Ayatollah Gholam Hossein Mohseni-Eje'I, Chief Justice of Iran; and Malikakhon Kalandarova, Deputy Chairperson of Uzbekistan's SC.

Addressing the gathering virtually, the President of the Supreme Federal Court of Brazil called for multipolarity and greater International collaboration.

He also emphasised that International Law is of critical importance in the current period of global instability and transition, and stressed the need to uphold the rule of law in the International order.

Mah forms high-level panel to overhaul recruitment exam system

MUMBAI, Sept 5 (IANS)

IN A major step to improve transparency, security and public confidence in recruitment examinations, the Maharashtra Government has constituted a high-level committee to undertake a comprehensive review of the State's recruitment examination system.

The decision follows a high-level meeting chaired by Chief Minister Devendra Fadnavis on August 12, during which the State leadership called for a complete review of recruitment examination procedures. The General Administration Department (GAD) issued the Government Resolution (GR) constituting the committee on September 4. The move comes amid controversies surrounding question paper leaks in several competitive examinations.

The newly-formed committee is chaired by V Radha, Additional Chief Secretary (Services), General Administration Department.

The seven-member panel comprises key administrative, security, technology, and academic leaders Sadanand Date -- Director General of Police, Maharashtra State -- Member, Virendra Singh -- Secretary, Department of Information Tech & AI -- Member, Dr N Ramaswami -- Secretary, Animal Husbandry, Dairying & Fisheries Department -- Member Secretary, Pravin Gedam -- DCr, Nashik Division -- Member, Air Marshal Ajit Shankarrao Bhosale (Retd.), AVSM, VSM -- Former Member, UPSC -- Member and Prof Shyamprasad Karagadde -- Professor, Department of Mechanical Engineering, IIT Bombay -- Member.

The committee has been tasked with conducting an end-to-end evaluation of how state recruitment examinations are conducted across various Government departments, authorities, and testing agencies.

Shouldn't be viewed from political or religious angle, say BJP ministers

NEW DELHI, Sept 5 (IANS)

THE Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) on Saturday stated that the demolition of a mosque at the Saharanpur Collectorate, should not be viewed from a political perspective and that there was no need to look at any building through the lens of religious identity.

SAHARANPUR MOSQUE DEMOLITION

Earlier in the day, the Uttar Pradesh Administration demolished the mosque located within the Collectorate complex in Saharanpur, after the Muslim side's appeal was rejected by the court. Addressing a press conference, BJP MP Sudhanshu Trivedi said: "The Agencies and whichever Departments of the Government are involved, are taking action in accordance with the law. So, I do not believe there is any need to view this from a political perspective, nor is there any need to look at any building through the lens of its religious identity."

"Whatever type of structure it may be, it should only be viewed from the perspective of whether it is legal or illegal," he added.

Meanwhile, Trivedi also spoke about the investigation into the exam irregularities in Jharkhand Public Service Commission.

"Facts which have surfaced following a probe into the examination for Assistant Conservator of Forests and Forest Range Officer, revealed that the strongroom was broken into, question papers were taken out and altered, which means whatever happened in Jharkhand is 'paper loot', nor paper leak," he said.

Meanwhile BSP supremo, Mayawati, criticised the demolition and urged the Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath Government to immediately halt such action.

SP chief Akhilesh Yadav also criticised the demolition move and said those who do not respect other religions cannot be considered true Sanatanis.

AIMIM President, Asaduddin Owaisi too reacted, questioning whether the constitutional guarantee of freedom of religion still applies to Muslims.

He further said that "you cannot bulldoze our masjid just because you have an itch."

CASE FILED OVER NEEDLE LEFT INSIDE NEWBORN'S BODY: THE Kerala Child Rights Commission on Saturday registered a case over allegations that a needle was left inside a newborn girl's body during treatment at Kottayam Medical College Hospital in 2025. Kottayam Medical College has also appointed a three-member committee to investigate the incident.

VHP bars participation of Muslims in garba in Mah; sets rules for organisers

MUMBAI, Sept 5 (PTI)

THE Vishva Hindu Parishad (VHP) has decided to bar Muslims from taking part in 'garba' and 'dandiya' events during next month's Navratri festival across Maharashtra, and also set "guidelines" for the organisers to verify the Hindu identity of participants.

These measures include checking the Aadhaar cards of attendees and applying 'tilak' on their foreheads. VHP spokesperson and joint secretary Shriraj Nair said the organisation took the decision to prevent participation of Muslim community members in garba and dandiya events. "We have taken a decision of not allowing participation of Muslims in garba-dandiya dance during the Navratri festival," Nair said. "Navratri is not just about songs and dance. The festival is about worshipping the Goddess. Why should Muslims, who are against idol worship, participate in the festival?" he said.
