'Congress is new Muslim League'

Oppn becomes new Muslim League, prioritises appeasement.

Press Trust Of India

NEW DELHI: The BJP on Thursday slammed the Congress over its decision to sing only two stanzas of "Vande Mataram" at its events, saying the opposition party has become the "new Muslim League" and appeasement politics is more important to it.

The Congress on Wednesday decided to abide by the 1937 resolution of the Congress Working Committee, the party's highest decision-making body, on "Vande Mataram", saying that only two stanzas of the national song would be sung at all party events henceforth.

In a post on X in Hindi, BJP president Nitin Nabin said the Congress has now formalised its insult to the national song into a resolution. "This insult to the sacred invocation of 'Bharat Mata' is a disdain for those thousands of martyrs who sacrificed their lives for the nation, keeping this very song in their consciousness," he said.

"The Congress has now formalised its insult (to Vande Mataram) into a resolution. Its working committee has decided that only the first two stanzas of Vande Mataram will be sung at Congress forums," he said.

Union Home Minister Amit Shah said the mistake of fragmenting "Vande Mataram" had already happened once and the nation suffered its consequences.

The Congress' decision to sing only two stanzas of "Vande Mataram" was aimed at appeasing its vote bank in defiance of the law, he said in a statement on X. "In 1937, for the sake of appeasement, it was the Congress itself that fragmented Vande Mataram into two parts," Shah said. Several ministers and BJP leaders shared the home minister's statement on X. BJP national general secretary Vinod Tawde also said today's Congress is the "new Muslim League" and its decision had exposed the opposition party's "anti-Constitution" strategy and character.

"The Congress has now also put an end to those speculations that it has become today's 'New Muslim League', because the same stubbornness that the Muslim League had in 1937 regarding Vande Mataram is the stubbornness of the Congress in 2026," Tawde said on X. He said the Congress has once again shown that its priority was vote-bank politics rather than national sentiment.

'National unity, integrity and honour remain paramount'

"In the name of appeasement politics, the Congress can no longer divide the country. The unity, integrity and honour of the nation are paramount," he added. BJP MP Anurag Thakur said the Congress considers itself above Parliament and the Constitution and asked why its leaders could not spare three minutes and 10 seconds to sing the full national song. He alleged that in its politics of appeasement, the Gandhi family is not even shying away from repeatedly insulting 1.4 billion Indians and Bankim Chandra Chattopadhyay. Thakur told reporters that the Congress had the opportunity to correct the "historical mistake" of insulting Chattopadhyay made by former prime minister Jawaharlal Nehru and the party.

Insurance backed growth

MUMBAI: InfinityDAO, the AI-driven decentralised finance ecosystem behind the IDL token, is moving to establish an institutional-scale insurance programme with aggregate coverage of up to US$1 billion, aiming to strengthen risk management, stakeholder protection and institutional credibility. The proposed programme, being arranged through a UK-based specialist crypto insurance syndicate, is designed to cover defined risks across five key areas—token default, platform default, crime and digital-asset theft, directors' and officers' liability, and qualifying ecosystem and stakeholder interests.

Final policy issuance, underwriting terms, limits and exclusions remain subject to the insurance contract. InfinityDAO operates IDL on the Polygon blockchain and describes its ecosystem as an AI-driven framework supported by five core modules: the Quantum Emission Matrix, Flux Liquidity Shield, Velocity Recycle Core, HyperGuard Lock and Infinity Sustainability Protocol. These systems are designed to manage token emissions, liquidity, staking, treasury reserves and ecosystem sustainability.

'Shinde faction enjoys defection benefits'

Press Trust Of India

Election Commission granted Sena symbol on majority

NEW DELHI: The Shiv Sena (UBT) on Thursday told the Supreme Court that the Eknath Shinde-led faction continued to enjoy the "fruits of defection" and the Election Commission granted Shiv Sena's name and the symbol to them substantially based on the legislative majority test.

The submissions were made before a bench of Chief Justice Surya Kant and justices Joymalya Bagchi and V Mohana which resumed hearing on the seventh day the challenge of the Uddhav Thackeray faction to the EC's decision recognising the Shinde-headed group as the "real Shiv Sena" and allotting it the party name and the 'bow and arrow' election symbol.

Senior advocate Devadatt Kamat, appearing for the Thackeray faction, said the Shinde group continue to reap the benefits of that defection because the symbols order of the poll panel stood on the basis of the legislative majority test.

"In this case, they have already enjoyed the fruits of defection because the matter could not be heard in time. We are not blaming anybody. But, they continue to reap the benefits even today. The symbols order stands on the basis of the legislative majority test," Kamat said. "Once disqualified, they lose their membership," Kamat said, adding that the alleged defectors had already benefited from the delay in deciding the disqualification petitions.

The bench questioned Kamat on the scope of the relief being sought. "Disqualified from what," the bench asked. Kamat responded that disqualification was a legal consequence flowing from the act of defection and that the court could declare the date from which the members incurred disqualification, even if consequential relief could no longer be effectively granted. "It is a legal declaration that the member lost his membership from the date on which the act of defection was committed," he said.

'Ensure quality education'

Bihar Chief Minister Samrat Choudhary on Thursday directed officials to strengthen the monitoring of government-run schools and ensure quality teaching for the holistic development of students. He issued the directions at a review meeting with Education Department officials at his residence here. According to a statement issued by the Chief Minister's Office, Choudhary directed officials to effectively implement the "one officer-one model school" system, under which officers would remain directly connected with schools to facilitate time-bound resolution of their problems. "Surprise inspections should also be conducted, and regular reporting of academic activities and daily functioning ensured at the headquarters and district levels," he said. Choudhary also ordered that parent-teacher meetings be held every three months in model schools to facilitate regular interaction on students' academic progress and requirements.

Healthcare services available all days

Press Trust Of India

NEW DELHI: Apollo Hospitals announced the launch of 'Always Open. Always Here.', a first-of-its-kind initiative that makes routine and planned healthcare services available across all seven days of the week, including Sundays. Apollo's emergency, critical care and inpatient services have always been available 24x7. The new initiative extends Sunday access to outpatient consultations, diagnostics, preventive health checks, follow-up consultations and scheduled procedures, helping patients and families seek timely care without waiting for a weekday. Dr. Prathap C. Reddy, Founder & Chairman, Apollo Hospitals Group, said, "For more than four decades, Apollo has believed that healthcare is not only about treating illness, but about protecting health and preventing disease. 'Always Open. Always Here.'
