

Assam Rifles holds weapon, equipment display For NCC Cadets in Agartala

Observer Reporter

Agartala: Sept 19. Assam Rifles organised a weapon and equipment display for NCC cadets at the Shaheed Bhagat Singh Youth Hostel in Agartala on Friday, providing young participants with an opportunity to learn about the force's operational capabilities and role. General Reference

The programme was aimed at creating greater awareness among the cadets about the weapons, equipment and specialised systems used by Assam Rifles in its operational duties. The participating cadets showed keen interest in the display and engaged with Assam Rifles personnel, seeking information about the capabilities, deployment and operational significance of the equipment showcased.

Officials also interacted with the students on the professional responsibilities and service ethos of the force. The programme was intended to familiarise the younger generation with the Armed Forces and encourage them to consider a career in uniformed services.

The initiative also highlighted Assam Rifles' efforts to engage with youth and promote values of patriotism, discipline and public service.

The force said such outreach programmes are aimed at strengthening its relationship with communities across the Northeast while creating greater awareness among young people about the Armed Forces and their contribution to the nation.

The minister also criticised the Communist parties and opposition groups, using terms such as "Urban Naxals", "intellectual Naxals" and "anti-national forces". He linked his criticism to student protests and political developments in Delhi, alleging that certain groups had attempted to undermine nationalism and India's cultural traditions. Calling upon young people to remain "vigilant" against what he described as forthcoming conspiracies and false propaganda, Das said the youth had a major role in determining the country's future. Citing Swami Vivekananda, he urged young people to move forward with a positive outlook and contribute towards nation-building.

Concluding his address, Das congratulated ABVP activists and the newly elected DUSU office-bearers, expressing hope that they would work for students' interests and contribute to strengthening the country.

services. Through these representatives, villagers will be able to access healthcare and other facilities without necessarily travelling to urban centres.

The Antyodaya Digital Mission has identified seven key areas—Digital Hospital, Education, Tourism, Sports, Culture, Skills & Employment, and Haat & Entrepreneurship Development. The initiative aims to expand technology-enabled learning, promote local heritage and talent, create employment opportunities, and connect rural products and enterprises with wider digital markets.

Supported by Swadhin Charitable Trust and academic partners, the mission seeks to bridge the digital divide and extend technology-driven healthcare, education, skills and livelihood opportunities to remote communities. Promoted under the Positive Barta brand, its digital platform is Ekudina, guided by the vision: "One Village, One AI Maa, Infinite Possibilities."

Youth joins tree plantation drive at MBB College Tilla Lake Park

Observer Reporter

Agartala: Sept 19. The Twimuk Collective, Caferacers of Agartala and Wheelz On Hills Pvt. Ltd. organised a tree plantation drive at MBB College Tilla Lake Park, managed by Pegasus Management, planting 100 saplings as part of an environmental initiative.

The drive saw participation from youths aged 16 to 30, mainly college and higher secondary school students. The organisers also felicitated labourers involved in the plantation drive in recognition of their contribution.

Caferacers of Agartala was represented by Secretary Debapriya Biswas, President Dipal Jamatia and Core Member Sarthak Datta.

The Twimuk Collective was represented by President Mongsanu Mog and core members Amran Debbarma, Tannisha Deb, Amit Debbarma, Retina Rupini and Sakshi Karmakar, along with other members.

Arijit Noatia, Founder and Owner of Wheelz On Hills Pvt. Ltd., represented the company and led its participation in the drive. The Twimuk Collective had earlier organised a cleanliness drive in August. Wheelz On Hills also organises monthly weekend rides featuring games and activities alongside its paid tour programmes, with a focus on youth and community participation.

tion-material enterprise.

"Look at Tripura Gramin Bank," Sitharaman said, noting that the bank was supporting people in "imaginative, innovative ways." She highlighted Bulti's journey from taking an initial loan to expanding her business, purchasing a vehicle and personally delivering construction materials to customers.

The Finance Minister also said that while banks generally focus on achieving lending targets, regional rural banks such as TGB were demonstrating how credit could be used to support grassroots entrepreneurship and livelihood creation.

"I want to extend my sincere appreciation to Tripura Gramin Bank," Sitharaman said while referring to Bulti's success story.

TGB is one of the Regional Rural Banks operating in Tripura and is sponsored by Punjab National Bank. The MUDRA scheme provides institutional collateral-free credit to micro enterprises, with loans under the Tarun category ranging above 25 lakh and up to Rs 10 lakh.

Sitharaman's interaction also underscored the broader objective of MUDRA to help small entrepreneurs access formal credit and gradually expand their businesses.

reportedly deteriorated, and he was shifted to the ICU on September 8. He died on September 09. The family has alleged that the stroke took place around the time of the August 19 incident and that the physical and psychological trauma aggravated his condition. The exact medical cause of death, however, would require confirmation from the treating doctors or official medical records.

Debray said an FIR was lodged and police seized CCTV footage and prepared a seizure list from the residence. However, he questioned why no arrests or interrogations had taken place despite the availability of evidence.

Speaking to Tripura Observer, the second officer of AD Nagar Police Station said that a 'Zero FIR' was initially registered and that Case No. 52/2026 was subsequently registered at the concerned police station on August 24, 2026, against seven persons. The officer confirmed that no arrest has been made so far.

The family has now appealed to the Chief Minister and senior police officials for a fair investigation and legal action against those responsible. Debray also demanded that the alleged involvement of Amalesh Das be examined in view of his reported organisational positions.

The allegations against the named individuals have not been independently established, and they would be entitled to due process and the presumption of innocence unless proven guilty in court.

work was continuing. Referring to Brajmanchhara VC, he claimed that only one pump house had been installed there in the 68 years after Independence, whereas five had been established during the last eight years. Debroy also cited housing, Ayushman Bharat, free foodgrain distribution and the Rashtriya Bal Swasthya Karyakram (RBSK) while explaining the BJP's outreach strategy. He said the party would approach voters with details of welfare and development schemes and expressed hope that people would support the NDA.

On urban development, Debroy said the BJP was preparing for the forthcoming Corporation, Municipal Council and Nagar Panchayat elections. He said around 60% of the party's organisational committees had already been constituted, while the remaining Morcha and Mandal Morcha committees would be completed by September 30.

"Following the 28th, responsibilities will be assigned for the Corporation, Municipal Council and Nagar Panchayat elections," he said, adding that preparations would cover every VC, Nagar Panchayat, Municipal Council and the Agartala Municipal Corporation. BJP state president Abhishek Debroy said the party had discussed future programmes and claimed its organisational activities had created renewed energy at the grassroots. He highlighted ADB-funded projects, Smart City works, underground power infrastructure, CCTV expansion, roads, bypasses and the proposed ring road, saying Agartala would eventually have no overhead power lines. Similar infrastructure improvements were planned for Udaipur and Dhamanagar, he said. "On 20 ST-reserved seats, Debroy said the BJP's strategy would follow directions from the central leadership. He said the party would strengthen its organisation at the grassroots and criticised the opposition's campaign as lacking substantive issues. He also urged citizens to cooperate with ongoing development works despite temporary inconvenience.
