

Headmaster honoured posthumously for saving schoolboy; CM Vijay presents medal to wife

CHENNAI: A government school headmaster from Krishnagiri district, who died while attempting to save an eight-year-old student from drowning, has been posthumously honoured with the Centre's Sarvottam Jeevan Raksha Award for 2025. Late PS Gowrisankar Raja, headmaster of Eluvavallai Panchayat Union Primary School, was selected for the award in recognition of his exceptional courage and sacrifice.

On March 5, 2025, during the lunch break, Class III student Nithin accidentally slipped into a farm pond located near the school. On seeing the boy struggling in the water, Gowrisankar Raja attempted to rescue him.

However, despite his efforts, both the eight-year-old boy and the headmaster died in the incident.

The Sarvottam Jeevan Raksha Award is given by the Centre for acts of exceptional bravery in saving lives. Nominations are received from State governments every year, following which the awardees are selected and announced by the President.

At the Secretariat on Thursday, Chief Minister Vijay presented the award medal and certificate to K.Sirisha, wife of the deceased headmaster. The award was presented in recognition of Gowrisankar Raja's bravery, courage and supreme sacrifice while attempting to save the schoolboy.

Nepal flood: 49-member Tamil Nadu pilgrimage group go missing, kin seek urgent intervention

CHENNAI: Families of six pilgrims from Kancheepuram are in distress after losing contact with them for more than 24 hours following the deadly flash flood in Nepal. They were part of a 49-member group on a spiritual trip and were reportedly at the immigration office when floodwaters swept through the building. Their families have submitted petitions to Kancheepuram Collector Sneha, seeking immediate steps to trace and rescue the pilgrims.

The Tamil Nadu government said that 103 people from Tamil Nadu had travelled to Nepal for the Kailash Yatra.

49-member Tamil Nadu pilgrimage group go missing in Nepal flood. The group, comprising 22 men and 27 women, left for the pilgrimage on August 14 through Mahadev Kailash Yatra, a spiritual tourism and travel company based in Radhanagar, Chromepet, Chennai. The pilgrims were from several parts of Tamil Nadu, including Chennai's Chromepet, Perambur, Alwarpet, Singaperumal Koil, Kancheepuram, Tiruvannamalai, Madurai, Virudhunagar, Theni, Namakkal, Erode, Karur, Tiruchy, Salem and Coimbatore.

The group reportedly travelled from Chennai airport to Nepal via Delhi on August 14. They were scheduled to complete the pilgrimage and return to Chennai on Thursday, August 27. After completing their pilgrimage, the group was reportedly travelling towards the Nepal border through the China border route. They were said to be undergoing immigration formalities at an immigration office when a sudden flash flood reportedly swept through the area and completely damaged the building. Following the incident, communication with the 49 pilgrims was reportedly lost. Their families have been unable to ascertain their whereabouts or condition. Seven members of the group are from Chromepet: Sathya Narayanan, Vikraman, Manjula, Velavendhan, Rajalakshmi, Amudha and Kishore. Sathya Narayanan, the son of the travel company's owner, was reportedly leading the group.

The six pilgrims from Kancheepuram have been identified as Meenakshi, Latha Bhanumathi, Saraswathi, Chandran, Gopal and Arunachalam.

Meenakshi and Chandran reportedly spoke to their families in Kancheepuram around 6 am on Wednesday, saying that they were travelling towards Nepal. However, no further communication has been received from them after reports of the flash flood.

With the pilgrims expected to return to Chennai on Thursday, their families are now deeply worried after being unable to contact them for more than 24 hours. They have urged the Centre and Tamil Nadu government to take immediate steps to trace and rescue the 49-member group.

TN Minister Aadhav accepts AIADMK's demand to implement Tambaram-Chengalpattu elevated corridor

CHENNAI: Minister for Highways and Public Works Aadhav Arjuna said that the government would take up the Tambaram-Chengalpattu elevated corridor project to tackle traffic congestion on the Grand Southern Trunk (GST) Road.

The announcement followed a demand raised by AIADMK floor leader Edappadi K Palaniswami during Question Hour on Thursday. He asked the Minister whether the government would implement the Tambaram-Chengalpattu elevated corridor project, which had been proposed during the AIADMK regime. Replying to him, Minister Aadhav said the government had already announced an eight-lane road project from Chennai to Kanniyakumari.

Explaining the traffic congestion in the suburban areas surrounding Chennai, he said travel time from Chengalpattu to Chennai Airport had increased to nearly three hours due to heavy traffic. "The same situation is being witnessed while travelling from Tiruvallur through Poonamallee. The elevated corridor between Tambaram and Chengalpattu will be implemented after detailed discussions with the Union government. A meeting with the Union government is scheduled for next month," he assured.

Tirunelveli halwa gets costlier as sugar prices soar

CHENNAI: Tirunelveli's iconic halwa is set to become more expensive as a sharp rise in sugar prices pushes up production costs, said a Daily Thanthi report. Sugar prices have increased from around Rs 50 per kg last month to Rs 75, citing supply shortage and increased consumption. No sugar shortage in India, prices to ease in coming days following govt's measures: ISMA

A popular sweet shop in Tirunelveli Junction has raised the price of halwa by Rs 20, from Rs 320 to Rs 340 per kg. Prices of other sweets, mixtures and savoury items have also been increased by Rs 20, while chips now cost Rs 380 per kg. Other popular halwa shops are already selling the sweet at Rs 340 per kg, while the famous Iruttukadai halwa in Tirunelveli Town is priced at Rs 440 per kg. Shop owners said they are considering another hike of up to Rs 40 per kg and are likely to announce the revised prices within a day or two. Sugar continued its upward march, rising by about Re 1 per kg to nearly Rs 64 on Tuesday in the retail market as recent government measures to curtail the surge take effect. As per the data compiled by the Department of Consumer Affairs (Price Monitoring Division), the all-India average rate of sugar stood at Rs 63.97 per kg on August 25, a 31 per cent increase from Rs 48.81 per kg a month back.

Mekedatu plan not for Bengaluru water, experts say

CHENNAI: Karnataka's claim that the proposed Mekedatu dam is meant to meet Bengaluru's drinking water needs is not supported by field-level findings, which indicate no drinking water shortage in the city, the Tamil Nadu Sectoral Experts Federation said on Thursday, asserting that the state is instead planning to expand its irrigation area. The experts said this was why talks between the chief ministers of Tamil Nadu and Karnataka would not resolve the Cauvery water-sharing dispute and could instead work against Tamil Nadu's interests. Retired senior Public Works Department engineer A Veerappan, hydrology expert S Janakaraian, State Platform for Common School System general secretary Prince Gajendrababu, advocate Vetriselvan of Poovulagin Nanbargal and Electricity Department Engineers' Association coordinator S Gandhi made the remarks at a press conference.
