Journalists Warn Against Curbs on Freedom of Expression

Hyderabad TSIT : Journalists and democratic activists on Tuesday warned that any attempt to curb freedom of expression, democratic rights or media freedom would be strongly resisted by journalists and other democratic forces.

The warning came during a candlelight protest organised by the Telangana State Union of Working Journalists (TUWJ) in Hyderabad against the alleged police attack, registration of a case and arrest of two women journalists while they were on duty in Delhi.

The protest began at the TUWJ office in Basheerbagh and proceeded via Nizam College to the Jagjivan Ram statue, where a public meeting was held under the chairmanship of TUWJ State President K.Virahath Ali.

Addressing the gathering, former Indian Journalists Union (IJU) president Devulapalli Amar expressed concern over what he described as an undemocratic approach by the NDA government and alleged attempts to undermine constitutional rights and freedoms.

He strongly condemned the alleged police action against women journalists Shaheen Khan and Nafeesa Khan, who were reportedly on duty in Delhi five days ago. He said governments had a responsibility to safeguard media freedom and protect journalists while they discharged their professional duties.
