

Vice President C P Radhakrishnan on Thursday said Hyderabad Liberation Day marks a decisive chapter in the history of independent India and reflects the nation's journey from political integration to constitutional democracy. Addressing the 79th Hyderabad Liberation Day celebrations organised by the union Ministry of Culture at Parade Grounds, Secunderabad, Mr Radhakrishnan said the erstwhile Hyderabad State was integrated with the Indian union following Operation Polo in September 1948. The operation, launched on September 13, concluded with the surrender of the Nizam's forces on September 17. He said the Centre had been commemorating the day since 2022 to honour those who sacrificed their lives for Hyderabad's liberation and integration and to bring the stories of lesser-known heroes to the younger generation. Recalling the role of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel in the integration of princely states, the Vice President said his firm resolve, political judgement and leadership laid the foundation for a strong and united India. He also acknowledged the contribution of the Indian armed forces and the Jodhpur Lancers during Operation Polo. Mr Radhakrishnan said the Hyderabad abad liberation struggle was also a people's movement in which students, intellectuals, writers and ordinary citizens endured hardships and made sacrifices. National unity, he said, could not be sustained by geography alone and had to be strengthened through equal rights, dignity and opportunities for every citizen. He stressed that Indians could follow different languages, traditions, faiths and political opinions, but were united by the Constitution and the principle that sovereignty ultimately rested with the people. The Vice President paid tribute to the martyrs and freedom fighters, including Komaram Bheem and other lesser-known heroes, and called upon people to draw inspiration from their sacrifices and contribute towards building a developed India by 2047. Telangana Governor Shiv Pratap Shukla, union Tourism and Culture Minister Gajendra Singh Shekhawat, union Coal and Mines Minister G Kishan Reddy, union Minister of State for Home Affairs Bandi Sanjay Kumar and other dignitaries attended the celebrations.

for sewerage remodelling works in the Karwan Zone, while ₹3.3 crore has been sanctioned for the Golconda Zone, taking the total sanctioned amount to ₹6 crore. Focus on Long-Pending Civic Issues The proposed remodelling works are expected to address recurring sewerage and pollution-related problems in the affected areas and strengthen the existing drainage network. Improved Sanitation Infrastructure The works will also focus on improving sewerage flow, drainage infrastructure and overall sanitation conditions, providing relief to residents who have been facing the issues for a long time. MLA Kausar Moinuddin said the sanctioned works would help improve civic infrastructure and address the concerns of residents in the Karwan and Golconda areas Trust N Cash Jewellery opened its fourth outlet at Kukatpally Housing Board Colony here on Thursday. The outlet was inaugurated by the company's Chief Executive Officer, Balu CP, who formally opened the premises by cutting a ribbon and lighting the traditional lamp. Speaking on the occasion, Mr. Balu said the company was committed to building customer trust through quality and transparent services. He said the new outlet would provide customers with an avenue to convert their gold jewellery into cash, while ensuring a convenient and reliable experience. He said the company's focus would remain on maintaining transparency in its services and developing long-term relationships with customers. The expansion was part of its efforts to strengthen its presence in the jewellery sector and offer accessible services to customers, he added. Chairman Office Murali, Pan-India Business Head Karthik, Telangana Business Head Thangarajan, Regional Manager Vishweshwar and Branch Manager Sivaparthi, among others, were present at the inauguration.
