Cleanliness drive held in Samalkha under 'Seva Sankalp Abhiyan'

ARVIND KUMAR

SAMALKHA: Prime Minister Narendra Modi's birthday was celebrated with great enthusiasm in Samalkha. To mark this special occasion, cleanliness drives were conducted across the city under the 'Seva Sankalp Abhiyan' (Service and Resolve Campaign), with enthusiastic participation from party workers and local residents. During the event, Samalkha MLA Manmohan Bhadana highly praised Prime Minister Narendra Modi's leadership. Comparing India with other nations, he remarked, "In a developed country like the UK, four to five Prime Ministers change within a single year, whereas PM Modi has provided the country with strong political stability for the past 12 years. Achieving this in a country of such immense diversity is no easy task." Highlighting India's geographical and cultural diversity, Bhadana noted that the country is home to 32 major languages and 8 major religions. He pointed out the contrasts—ranging from the culture of Gujarat to the situation in Manipur, and from Kerala at one end to Jammu & Kashmir at the other. Managing a nation with such vast differences and steering it onto the path of development is truly extraordinary. PM Modi has worked tirelessly, day and night, to unite 1.4 billion citizens and chart a roadmap for a bright future for all.

Villagers express anger over Anganwadi operation in SC Chaupal; Stage Protest at SDM Office

PRITI SAINI

SADHAURA: The issue regarding the demand to relocate the Anganwadi center currently operating from the SC Chaupal in Bhamnauli village is escalating. On Tuesday, a large number of villagers gathered at the Bilaspur SDM office, where they raised slogans against the administration to express their resentment. They demanded that the administration free the SC Chaupal from the Anganwadi's occupation. The villagers state that the SC Chaupal was constructed to host public activities, social functions, and other community gatherings. According to them, permission was initially granted to run the Anganwadi from the Chaupal because no other space was available at the time. However, as the Anganwadi now occupies the entire facility, villagers are facing difficulties in organizing their own events.The villagers reported that they had submitted written complaints to the Sarpanch multiple times requesting the Anganwadi's relocation, yet the problem remains unresolved. They also approached the Block Development and Panchayat Officer (BDPO) office but did not receive a satisfactory response there either. The villagers allege that despite repeated complaints, the administration is not paying serious attention to their grievance. Consequently, they united to protest at the SDM office, demanding the immediate vacation of the Chaupal. They have warned the administration that if prompt action is not taken on their demand, they will be compelled to intensify their agitation. Furthermore, they have urged the SDM to intervene in the matter and ensure the Anganwadi is shifted to a suitable alternative location.Shabnam, the Block Development and Panchayat Officer (BDPO) of Bilaspur, stated that the matter is currently under investigation and appropriate action will be taken.
