

Service and Felicitation Program at an Old Age Home on the Birthday of Sumit Kumar Singh

PRABHAT HEADLINE

Patna: A heartwarming picture has emerged from Chhattisgarh, conveying a beautiful message of humanity and service while celebrating a birthday.

On the special occasion of the birthday of former Bihar government minister Sumit Kumar Singh, social worker Jaiprakash Yadav visited an old age home and shared the joy of the birthday celebrations with the elderly residents.

A cake-cutting ceremony was organized at the old age home, where the elderly residents celebrated the occasion with great enthusiasm. Fruits were also distributed among them, and time was spent interacting with the residents and seeking their blessings.

During the event Sumit Kumar Singh was also wished a happy birthday through a video call. The occasion brought visible happiness and smiles to the faces of the elderly residents.

Social worker Jaiprakash Yadav said that celebrating special occasions such as birthdays with elderly and needy people makes the joy of the occasion even more meaningful. He emphasized that senior citizens are an invaluable part of our society and that respecting and caring for them is the responsibility of everyone.

The event at the old age home conveyed a powerful message: happiness is not meant to be kept only for ourselves, but becomes more meaningful when it is shared with others.

The service program organized on the birthday of Sumit Kumar Singh presented a beautiful example of humanity, respect for senior citizens, and social responsibility.
