Delhi high court gets 7 new judges

New Delhi, Agency: The law ministry has notified the appointment of 14 new judges to four high courts, which include Delhi, Karnataka, Jharkhand, and J&K and Ladakh. The oath of office to the judges will be administered Monday.

The appointees were judicial officers who were earlier recommended by Supreme Court collegium to be elevated to the different HCs. There are still several recommendations of the collegium pending due to procedural issues.

Govt Saturday notified the appointment of seven judicial officers to be judges of Delhi HC. Those elevated include Nivedita Anil Sharma and Nisha Sahay Saxena, both made permanent judges of HC, and Sanjay Sharma, Bharat Parashar, Dinesh Bhatt, Arun Bhardwaj and Aditi Choudhary as additional judges, appointed for two years. Judicial officer Yash Paul Bourney has been appointed as judge of J&K and Ladakh HC, while Manoj Prasad, Akhil Kumar and Ram Sharma as judges of Jharkhand HC. Usharani, Kuruba Shanthappa, Bharath Kumar and Nerale Veerabhadraiah Bhavani have been appointed as additional judges of the Karnataka high court.

The 25 high courts across the country together have 304 posts of judges vacant against a sanctioned strength of 1,122 judges, as of Sept 1.

Deleting valid, adding invalid votes: Kapil Sibal slams EC on notice

New Delhi, Agency: With several prominent names including those of jurists, politicians and academicians having been flagged by the Delhi Chief Election Officer for discrepancies and mapping concerns, Rajya Sabha MP and lawyer Kapil Sibal in a press conference on Sunday attacked the Election Commission of India (ECI) over the ongoing Special Intensive Revision (SIR) of electoral rolls in the nation, saying what was going on was special intensive deletion to delete valid votes and special intensive addition to add invalid votes.

Sibal's remarks came after he and his wife were issued notices under the SIR in the "unmapped with last SIR" category. The former Union minister said that if this had happened to people like him, then one can imagine what would happen to the ordinary person and how would they ever cope with all this.

He sought to know as to what was the point of conducting elections, if the ECI's intention was to keep the BJP in power. "And why is this man (Chief Election Commissioner) Gyanesh Kumar sitting on that chair? On what basis is he doing this, and why is he being allowed to do this?" Sibal said he was shocked to learn that though his name was in the draft register, he was sent a notice.

Healthcare goes digital: When doctors go behind the app wall, who gets left behind?

New Delhi, Agency: As healthcare increasingly moves from hospital counters and paper records to apps and online portals, access to care is becoming closely tied to access to technology.

For many patients, digital healthcare can mean quicker consultations, easier access to medical records and fewer trips to hospitals. But for others, particularly older people, rural communities, low-income families and those with limited digital literacy, the shift can add another layer of difficulty.

The problem is not simply whether a person owns a smartphone. Patients may struggle with internet connectivity, downloading and navigating apps, remembering passwords and OTPs, uploading documents or understanding information presented online. In many households, a single smartphone is shared by several family members, while caregivers often become the bridge between patients and digital health services. As government and private healthcare services increasingly encourage, and in some cases require, people to use digital platforms, a larger question is emerging: Is technology making healthcare more barrier to accessing it.
