

Guv meets GOC 101 Area, emphasises need to further strengthen civil-military liaison

ITANAGAR, Sep 25: The General Officer Commanding (GOC) 101 Area, Lt Gen Mohit Waghwa, SM, called on the Governor of Arunachal Pradesh, Lt Gen KT Parnaik (Retd), at Lok Bhavan, Itanagar, on September 25, 2026.

The meeting focused on logistics and administrative support, civil-military coordination, and humanitarian assistance and disaster relief (HADR) mechanisms in the North-East.

The Governor commended the pivotal role of 101 Area, headquartered in Shillong, in ensuring seamless combat logistics and operational coordination across the region. He appreciated the Command's prompt and professional response during natural disasters, including floods and landslides, where timely rescue, relief, and rehabilitation efforts have brought invaluable support to affected communities.

Highlighting Arunachal Pradesh's strategic importance, the Governor emphasized the need to further strengthen civil-military liaison. He said that close coordination among the Armed Forces, State Government, and civil administration is essential for effective disaster response and public welfare initiatives.

The Governor urged the GOC to further strengthen welfare measures for Ex-Servicemen and Veer Naris, with particular emphasis on improving access to the Ex-Servicemen Contributory Health Scheme (ECHS), and empanelling of State healthcare institutions. He also highlighted the importance of facilitating access to other welfare programmes, including resettlement and skill development initiatives, educational assistance for children of Ex-Servicemen, and pension-related services, and reemployment of veterans as provisions provided by the State Government.

The Governor suggested regular awareness camps, medical outreach activities in remote areas, and closer coordination with the Rajya Sainik Board and Zila Sainik Boards to ensure that every eligible veteran and family member is able to avail the benefits and entitlements provided by the Government.

The GOC assured the Governor of the Indian Army's continued commitment to maintaining close coordination and extending all possible support for the security, development, and well-being of the people of Arunachal Pradesh.

In his speech, he highlighted the increasing relevance and possibilities of Hindi in the digital and technological age and discussed the emerging opportunities for the younger generation through the use and promotion of Hindi in various technological platforms. The Head of the Department of Hindi, Dr. Tumbom Riba Jomoh Lilly, addressed the gathering and highlighted the importance of the Hindi language as a unifying force of the nation. She emphasized that Hindi plays an important role in connecting people from diverse linguistic and cultural backgrounds. At the same time, she stressed the importance of preserving one's mother tongue and local dialects. She encouraged everyone to learn, speak, cherish, and preserve their mother tongue and dialects, emphasizing that they are an integral part of one's identity, culture, and life. She further encouraged the audience to develop equal respect and pride for Hindi as well as their own linguistic heritage. As part of the Hindi Pakhwada celebrations, an exhibition of books by various local writers of Arunachal Pradesh was also organized. The exhibition showcased a diverse collection of literary works by Arunachali writers and provided students, faculty members, and visitors with an opportunity to explore and appreciate the rich literary, cultural, and linguistic heritage of the state. The initiative encouraged reading habits among students and highlighted the valuable contribution of local writers to the literary landscape of Arunachal Pradesh. The programme also featured a variety of cultural and dance performances by students from different semesters. A special cultural performance by the faculty members of the Department of Hindi was also presented and appreciated by the audience. The winners of various competitions organized during Hindi Pakhwada were felicitated with prizes and mementos. These included the Poetry Recitation Competition, Self-Composed Poetry Recitation Competition, and Inter-Semester Dance Competition. The Poetry Recitation Competition organized for faculty members from non-Hindi departments also witnessed enthusiastic participation. The programme also included the felicitation of former students of the College who secured positions among the Top Ten in the Rajiv Gandhi University Entrance Examination conducted under CUET in June 2026. The felicitation served as an encouragement and recognition of their academic achievements. The active participation of students and faculty members from different departments and semesters contributed significantly to the success of the programme. The programme created a positive atmosphere of appreciation for the Hindi language and also conveyed the importance of respecting linguistic diversity and cultural heritage. The programme concluded with a Vote of Thanks delivered by Yanam Gapak, Convenor, Department of Hindi. In her address, she expressed her sincere gratitude to the College administration, the subject expert, Head of the Department, faculty members, students, organizing team, and members of the media fraternity for their valuable support, active participation, and cooperation in making the Hindi Pakhwada celebrations successful.
