

HC SEEKS COMPLIANCE REPORT ON GANESH FESTIVAL GUIDELINES

Noise loud & continuous, organisers violating noise pollution norms, says judge

TG NAIDU @Hyderabad

THE Telangana High Court has directed police authorities to submit reports on compliance with its guidelines for installing Ganesh idols and conducting festivities in public places, noting that loud sound systems used while transporting idols were causing disturbance.

Justice NV Shraavan Kumar issued the directions while hearing a contempt case filed by Damodhar Reddy and another, alleging non-compliance with the court's August 26, 2025, order.

The Government Pleader for Home, based on instructions from the Nirmal Town Inspector of Police, said police held peace meetings with Ganesh pandal organisers, Ganesh Utsava Committee members and Majeed Committee members on September 13 and 16. They were instructed to follow the court's directions.

Police also took preventive action against DJ operators, with 57 persons across various police stations in Nirmal district being bound over. Eight cases were registered under various provisions of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita and the Police Act for alleged violations.

The court clarified that its orders in WP No. 25346 of 2025 and CC No. 2278 of 2025, applicable across Telangana, would govern this year's Ganesh festivities as well.

The court took note of reports of loud sound systems being used on roads at night while

DJ ban: Police help Ganesh organisers recover advances

Kamareddy: Police are helping Ganesh festival organisers recover advances paid to DJ operators after the state imposed a strict ban on DJs during idol processions and immersion programmes. Several organisers had already paid advances before the restrictions were announced. In Ramareddy, police helped the Hanuman Youth Dal recover ₹40,000, while organisers in Akkapur recovered ₹60,000 after intervention by local police. SP M Rajesh Chandra urged organisers to follow the restrictions and explained the health risks of loud music. Police said similar efforts were under way in other areas.

transporting idols for immersion. It observed that the noise appeared to be loud and continuous and that organisers were prima facie violating the Noise Pollution (Regulation and Control) Rules, 2000.

With Ganesh immersion scheduled for September 25, the court directed authorities to submit a preliminary compliance report for Hyderabad, Secunderabad and adjoining areas by Thursday. Nirmal authorities were asked to file a counter-affidavit along with the instructions given to the Government Pleader. The matter was posted to September 24 for the preliminary and compliance reports.

Govt nod for Paradise ticket price hike under scrutiny

TG NAIDU @Hyderabad

JUSTICE NV Shraavan Kumar of the Telangana High Court on Tuesday questioned the state government's decision to permit enhanced ticket prices for Paradise, scheduled for release on September 24.

The judge was hearing IA No. 1 of 2026 concerning the permission and a September 20 memo allowing the hike.

The court noted that the principal secretary (home), who had earlier been directed to place proposals for enhanced ticket prices in the public domain 90 days before a film's release, had not complied with the direction.

It prima facie held that issuing the latest memo without prior public disclosure violated the directions issued in January 2026 and relevant statutory provisions.

The court also noted that Clause 11 of GO 77 requires the principal secretary to record reasons in writing for permitting an increase in ticket prices. It questioned the validity of the permission in view of the alleged non-compliance.

The court said the principal secretary could consider withdrawing the memo, but any beneficiary affected by such withdrawal would have to be given an opportunity of hearing, which could not conveniently be done in contempt proceedings.

It suggested that the parties pursue appropriate writ proceedings. The matter was adjourned by two weeks after filing of the counter-affidavit.

Officials collect details of baby's treatment for CMO

The CMRF officials collected details about the child's health condition and ongoing treatment at Rainbow Children's Hospital in Hyderabad.

The officials informed Devender that the details, including the baby's medical condition and treatment requirements, would be brought to the notice of the Chief Minister's Office.

Devender told TNIE that the family had been forced to postpone the baby's surgery by another two days due to a lack of funds. The parents, Devender and Sowmya, are awaiting financial assistance to meet the mounting medical expenses and proceed with the surgery to treat the baby's bile duct blockage.

The parents thanked the chief minister with folded hands for responding to their plight and expressed hope that financial assistance would reach them at the earliest, allowing doctors to perform the surgery.

Post advertised in September 2024, Dr Joshi appointed in December

The selection process was initiated through an advertisement dated September 12, 2024. The eligibility criteria included Scientist Grade SC "H" or above, experience as director of a laboratory/programme director/corporate director and at least 18 months of residual service.

A three-member Selection Committee was required to recommend a panel of up to three candidates to the secretary, Department of Defence Research and Development and Chairman, DRDO.

The Selection Committee recommended three candidates, including Naidu and Dr Joshi, and the competent authority selected Dr Joshi, who was appointed Director General (BrahMos) on December 1, 2024.

'Post highly sensitive'

The Union government argued that the post was of highly sensitive and strategic importance and that the selection was based on suitability assessed by a high-level competent authority. It contended that both candidates had received the same marks and that there was no allegation of mala fide, bias, or violation of the prescribed eligibility conditions.

The high court observed, at the interim stage, that the CAT had proceeded to quash the appointment without allegations of mala fide or bias or violation of statutory rules or the essential conditions of the advertisement and SOP. It held that the Tribunal had effectively stepped into the shoes of the Selection Committee.
