

Lord Malayappa Swamy being taken out on Garuda Vahanam at Tirumala on Saturday; (R) Lakhs of devotees throng Four Mada Streets to witness the celestial procession during the ongoing Brahmotsavams | EXPRESS

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Tirumala

THOUSANDS of devotees expressed satisfaction with the arrangements made for the Garuda Seva procession at the Tirumala Venkateswara Temple on Saturday, with officials adapting crowd-management measures to accommodate pilgrims who could not be accommodated in the designated galleries.

Many devotees gathered along the Mada streets to witness Lord Venkateswara on the Garuda Vahanam, with several seen offering Harathi and expressing their joy after securing a close view of the processional deity.

TTD Chairman BR Naidu, board members, staff, police and vigilance personnel coordinated the arrangements, particularly for pilgrims who had been waiting since morning to secure viewing spots. Tirupati Collector Venkateswar, TTD Executive Of-

Pilgrims express immense satisfaction over TTD arrangements for event

2L devotees throng Tirumala by 3 pm

Almost two lakh devotees had entered Tirumala by 3 pm. TTD Additional Executive Officer Ch Venkaiah Choudary, SP Subba Rayudu and CVSO Murali Krishna inspected key locations and directed officials to ensure safety. With Mada streets packed, senior police officials deployed a third security layer at strategic checkpoints ficer Muddada Ravichandra, and vigilance and police officials reviewed the situation as the pilgrim influx increased. As the designated galleries reached capacity, officials allowed stranded devotees to enter the Mada streets to witness the procession.

The procession, originally scheduled for 7 pm, commenced at 6.30 pm to facilitate crowd management. By then, the galleries were packed. TTD management, board members and dignitaries, including former chairmen, judges and senior IAS and IPS officers, gathered at the Vahana Mandapam for Darshan and offered Harathi.

During the procession, officials paused the Garuda Vahanam and turned it towards devotees at several junctions to facilitate better viewing. The procession proceeded smoothly up to the Hathiram Bhavaji Mutt.

At the Supatham gate, TTD Additional EO Ch Venkaiah Choudary, SP Subba Rayudu and vigilance personnel halted the Vahanam to allow devotees waiting at SMC, SMGH and the Old VQC Road to enter the Mada streets.

The devotees were allowed to offer Harathi and have Darshan from both sides of the palanquin. Officials implemented similar crowd-management measures at all four corners of the Mada streets, allowing more devotees to witness the procession.

TTD Chairman, Addl EO inspect Four Mada Streets

TTD Additional Executive Officer Ch Venkaiah Choudary on Saturday led Trust Board Chairman BR Naidu and seven other trustees on an inspection of the four Mada streets to review arrangements for the Garuda Seva procession.

Driving a battery vehicle himself, the Additional EO took the board through the South, North and West Mada street galleries and interacted with the devotees who had been reserving spots since 8 am.

The board sought feedback from pilgrims on the distribution of food, water, tea and snacks, as well as cultural programmes. It also reviewed darshan arrangements, accommodation, Laddu Prasadam distribution, security and transport facilities.

The inspection began at noon and concluded at 1.30 pm. Later, Chairman BR Naidu and board members told the media that they were satisfied with the arrangements made by the TTD administration for a smooth and secure pilgrimage experience.

Srikakulam reported the highest number of cases till August at 706, followed by West Godavari (369), Vizianagaram (307), Krishna (296) and Eluru (271). As of September 18, 2,807 doses of ASV were available across AP, including 1,391 in Vizianagaram, 364 in Nellore, 267 in Krishna, 260 in West Godavari and 213 in Kurnool.

CID trains police personnel in cybercrime investigation

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Vijayawada

ANDHRA Pradesh Crime Investigation Department (APCID) organised a three-day "Cyber Security and Cyber Hygiene Training Programme (Phase-I)", with an objective of strengthening the capabilities of police personnel in investigating cybercrimes and promoting effective cyber security and cyber hygiene practices.

The training programme was conducted from September 16 to 18 under the guidance of CID chief Ravi Shankar Ayyanar. The programme focused on continuous capacity building and imparting updated technical knowledge to police officers and personnel in view of the rapidly evolving cybercrimes and technologies.

Ravi Shankar Ayyanar emphasised the importance of continuous capacity building and keeping police personnel updated with the latest technological developments, particularly as cyber-crime methods and techniques continue to evolve.

He stated that strengthening the modern investigative skills and digital forensic capabilities of police officers and personnel is essential for effectively detecting, investigating and responding to cybercrimes.

He further stated that such capacity-building and specialised technical training programmes will be conducted continuously in the future to further enhance the capabilities of CID personnel in tackling emerging cyber-crime challenges.

The three-day programme covered a wide range of key and emerging areas related to cybercrime investigation, including cybercrime awareness, Digital Arrest frauds and various Modus Operandi, information gathering, legal notices, digital evidence collection, investigation of social media-related crimes, financial frauds, bank account investigations, CDR/IPDR analysis, OSINT tools and others.
